

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE FORUM

Leaders learning with leaders

The Chief Executive Forum is a place where successful CEOs and MDs meet to learn from each other, where their assumptions are tested, their ideas challenged and their dreams are achieved.

The experiential learning, together with great networking, access to expert speakers and professional one to one coaching, provides the best possible solution for developing businesses and leadership skills.

The Chief Executive Forum - leaders learning with leaders.

Benefits to you include:

- a safe place for you to share best practice every month
- your own independent sounding board and source of new ideas
- expert speakers to implement practical tips directly into your business
- continuous improvement with the best leadership development techniques
- develop yourself through one-to-one coaching
- gain a sharper leadership focus, more honed for the future
- accelerated and sustained results for you and your business
- ongoing support, challenge and sense of community.

The Chief Executive Forum detail:

- designed for CEOs and MDs of small and medium sized businesses
- each Forum member will be from a non-conflicting industry
- the Forum meets monthly for a full day, facilitated by the Group Chairman
- a 2 hour one-to-one coaching session with your Chairman every month
- expert professional speakers are invited to present at many meetings
- an two day annual retreat focused on individual goals and life aspirations.

Join your local Forum and be inspired by other business leaders to achieve your dreams.

“The Academy has given me a boardroom of my own where there are no hidden agendas, just people who are working to help me. It has taught me skills, which I use all the time in my day to day life. It has given me direction out of a life filled with stress and dissatisfaction. Life’s ups and downs now seem manageable and I look forward to each new adventure.”
